SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the Probation Office, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports to the substance ahuse treatment provider, as approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment), in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

The defendant shall undergo a sex-offense-specific evaluation and participate in a sex offender treatment/and or mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program(s), including submission to polygraph testing. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in any records for mental health assessment and treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the probation officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount approved by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of thirdparty payment.

The defendant shall not have deliberate contact with any child under age 17, unless approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall not loiter within 100 feet of schoolyards, playgrounds, arcades, or other places primarily used by children under the age of 17.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, place of business, vehicle, or any other premises under his control to a search on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable belief that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of the release may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant is not to use a computer, Internet-capable device, or similar electronic device to access child pornography or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting sexual relations with children. The defendant shall consent to the use and/or installation of a computer program which shall monitor suspect computer use on any computer owned or controlled by the defendant. The program used will be designed to identify, for the probation office, only the viewing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, or otherwise using any images or content of sexual nature, defined as Suspect Computer Use. Suspect Computer Use shall be identified by the installed program and/or the probation officer through the screening of the defendant's computer usage for certain key words, phrases, and images.

The defendant shall report to the nearest Probation office within 72 hours after release from custody.

The defendant shall be supervised by the district of residence.
